New Ladies Bible Study

Please join us, beginning Monday, Jan. 9th, as we read through the book of Hosea with a book guide.

"The book of Hosea powerfully illustrates God's relationship with covenant-breaking Israel, helping readers understand the extent of his redeeming love for his people. This accessible study walks readers through the biographical and symbolic elements of the story of Hosea and Gomer."

To further enrich the themes present in this book, we will also read "Redeeming Love," by Francine Rivers.

Please sign up in the foyer - and please indicate which, or both, books you would like reserved on your behalf.

We will meet at the Whitesboro building for this 12 week study, starting at 6:30pm. Any questions can be directed to Sarah Macri (315-552-4463, please text or leave a voicemail / scmacri@gmail.com).

FYI

A special designated fund has been set up for the purpose of carpeting our Whitesboro Worship Center.

The floor measures approximately 8200 sq. ft. and will cost $25,000, or $3.05/sq. ft. to cover.

Samples of the carpet squares can be found at the foot of the cross.

The carpet will not only beautify the Worship Center, but it will also eliminate tearing up and replacing hundreds of damaged floor tiles. If you feel led to donate to this fund, write "carpet" on your offering envelope.
