As we all know Vacation Bible School is fast approaching! And we have some team needs:

Currently in search of a Communication Director –

They would be responsible for providing oversight in communicating to our church and the community about VBS. The responsibilities would include using any and every available resource to spread the word about VBS, including making fliers to invite our community, recruiting volunteers to help distribute them, providing the tools and; supplies needed for our church members to invite friends, family, co-workers, and neighbors and finding media outlets that would allow us to advertise.

Decorators/Main Area – They would be responsible for decorating the rooms in the Main area of church (including props for rallies & individual stations). They would need to recruit decorating help and scheduling their own work days & times to get the work done.

Preschool Decorating team – Same qualities as above; would be responsible for decorating and maintaining the preschool area.

Clean up team – It is so crucial for us to have an awesome area for the children to see for VBS, it is also equally important to maintain our building. This group would be responsible for leading the clean up effort the Sunday after VBS week. This includes putting supplies/decorations away neatly in VBS decorating room located in back of church. Directing everyone as to where everything goes and making sure our church looks just as beautiful as it should.

Please contact VBS Director if you would like to help
