Southern Baptist Disaster Relief is a ministry that shows Christ's love by meeting urgent needs of those hurting in the midst of disasters. The Baptist Convention of New York Disaster Relief Team is a part of the North American Mission Board's relief effort.

Volunteers are members of Southern Baptist Churches. They have a desire to be a part of a team to meet needs and are willing to commit time and energy to serve the Lord in the midst of disaster. Teams have opportunities to share the Gospel, give Bibles and to pray with people they help.

BCNY units available for Disaster Relief:

- A feeding unit capable of preparing 10,000-15,000 meals a day —
- A Chainsaw/Flood Recovery Unit — BCNY
- A Flood Recovery Unit — BCNY
- A Shower Unit — BCNY
- A Recovery Unit — North Jersey Network of Churches
- A Shower Unit — North Jersey Network of Churches
- A Shower Unit — Hudson Baptist Association

PRAY FOR DISASTER RELIEF:

DAY 1: Pray for BCNY Disaster Relief leaders

DAY 2: Pray for disaster Relief Volunteers

Pray for safety traveling to disaster worksites and safety on disaster job assignments.

DAY 3: Pray for volunteers to have opportunities to share the Gospel and pray with those affected by disaster.

DAY 4: Pray for families affected by disasters.

Pray for disaster victims to receive encouragement and strength.

Pray that material and financial needs of each family would be met.

DAY 5: Pray for Christians and churches to give financially to support the work of Disaster Relief.

DAY 6: Pray for individuals to be willing to be trained and serve with Disaster Relief Teams.

DAY 7: Pray for churches equipped with generators, showers, kitchens, etc. to assist with Disaster Relief.

Pray for professional plumbers, construction workers, and electricians to serve on Disaster Relief Teams.
