Book Club

Now that many of us have completed our Experiencing God curriculum we may be ready for a "new read". Sign up today for our new Book Club selection-"The Magnificent Obsession" by Anne Graham Lotz.

Join us as we grow in our understanding of Abrahams magnificent obsession, his unique experience of God and why and how he was enabled to leave everything behind, let everything go, entrust everything completely, lift everything up, cast everything out, and lay everything down.

The book will cost approx. $10 in paperback and we will begin reading in January and have our fellowship dinner/book review discussion in April.

So you have plenty of time to read and a sweet time of fellowship to look forward to. This is open to men and women and anyone you may wish to invite and include!!

Kitchen Update

The tree is down, but donations continue to be accepted for our new kitchen. You may take a tag from the table in the foyer, or just designate "Kitchen" on your offering envelope.

Thank you all who participated in the Scrooge Skit & Puppet Show this past Sunday including the parents who bring their children to & fro in their busy schedules.

A special thanks to the Jones family who contributed so much & especially Dena who managed the puppeteers as well as helped with costumes & keeping the kids in order.

All to the glory of God !

Well over 100 years ago, a single missionary named Lottie Moon, while serving in China, began writing letters challenging the American church to send and support more workers to go there. After her death on the field, her challenge was heeded in the formalization of an offering in her name. Even if you're not a Southern Baptist who has given to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, her life is a reminder of why we must give to send and support missionaries serving among unreached peoples in unreached places.

Lottie Moon—the namesake of Southern Baptists' international missions offering—has become a legend. But in her time, Lottie was anything but an untouchable hero. In fact, she was like today's missionaries. She labored tirelessly so her people group could know Jesus.
