COLD KITS

On Saturday, January 27th, all are invited to hand out cold kits to people in need in Downtown Utica. A cold kit is a bag filled with the things someone would need to survive the harsh Central New York winter.

These kits include hats, gloves, scarves, hand warmer packets, tissues, chap stick, nonperishable foods, hand sanitizer, etc.. Every year in January, we bundle up and hand out these kits with gospel tracts inside as well as trying to talk to, connect with, and pray with as many people as possible.

In years past we have been able to bless some homeless folks, a woman who was digging through the trash with her little daughter, a young boy who had no jacket and many more. Anybody in the church interested in joining us is more than welcome (children 6th grade or below must be accompanied by a parent or guardian).

We will be meeting at Crosspoint Whitesboro at 9am.

Year End Tax Statements

Our Financial Secretary, Joni Mogle, has begun the process of preparing year end tax statements. She will be handing them out in the foyer beginning this Sunday. Please help in this process by meeting with her either before or after our morning service.

Operation Christmas Child All-Year Round:

This year we are organizing and expanding Operation Christmas Child with Site Coordinators at BOTH buildings: these coordinators will assist the Central Collection Coordinator (that's me, Sarah!) in organizing and keeping the two sites running well in October and November for Operation Christmas Child.

What would this look like? This would look like TWO drop offs, where New Hartford would bring over their shoeboxes at the end of the week like other drop-offs. (The site coordinator at Whitesboro would help me keep drop-off running, too, only you wouldn't have to travel with any shoeboxes :))

The why is simple: there are no drop offs in this specific area. The closest one to Clinton otherwise is Vernon. (The other drop-offs in this area are Mohawk, Remsen, Boonville, Rome, Vernon and of course, Whitesboro).

We also received NUMEROUS requests to receive boxes at this location last year.

Please pray for us as we look forward to what Operation Christmas Child has for this area and how to best administratively meet those needs.

Any questions can be addressed to Sarah Macri - 315-552-4463 (text, please leave voicemails!) or scmacri@gmail.com

Pastor Sam is taking a much needed and deserved vacation and will return on February 4th.
