Dear Friends in Christ...

We are overwhelmed each month by God's goodness and faithfulness as He always provides for His purposes through you, His people!

Life in Haiti can be hard and the extraordinary needs of those we engage with seem impossible to meet; and for the most part they are. In the sea of hunger, lack of healthcare, and desperation it is often hard to see the hope that Crosspoint Church offers through us, your missionaries in the field. As I write this...on a porch outside my window are 6 women who believe we can (God can) help them create a bit better future through training.

Please remember that as the body of Christ, it is all of us together that are providing hope to those here in abject poverty. Every morning Madel ministers to those women singing praises, reading scripture, and in prayer. My eyes are wet as I think about how God in His perfect goodness always knew that we together would be here in this place to offer spiritual truth and physical compassion on His children.

Thank you very much for living out you faith alongside us.

If any of you see Merwin Warren, please tell him we are grateful for his generous support. He lacks an email address.

Be Well,

Dan and Madel Beck
